SUNDAY † 29 JANUARY 2012

4:00 p.m. RICHARD ELLIOTT, CONCERT ORGANIST
Richard Elliott is Principal Organist of the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City. He previously served as an assistant organist for the world's largest functioning pipe organ in Philadelphia's Lord and Taylor (formerly John Wanamaker) department store. He plays for the weekly Music and the Spoken Word broadcasts and joins with his fellow organists in presenting daily 30-minute organ recitals in the Tabernacle. In addition, Elliott performs widely as an organ recitalist and has recorded on the Tabernacle organ for several record labels. He earned a Bachelor of Music degree from the famed Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and later received Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Elliott is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists, a published composer, and has written articles for several music journals. [This recital is co-sponsored by The Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea and the Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach County chapters of The American Guild of Organists.]
