Lesson  Lametions 1:1-6
How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal. She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies. Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress. The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festival; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter. Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper; because the Lord has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe. From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Prayers of the People
The Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
We pray for all those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.
Give to the departed eternal rest;
Let light perpetual shine upon them.
We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Response Thanks be to God.

The Apostles' Creed
I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is—seen and unseen.

Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is—seen and unseen.

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread—and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalms 136:1-26

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Peace
The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Holy Communion
Offertory Members of the congregation will present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord.
Offertory Anthem Come, My Way Malcolm Archer
Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life: such a way as gives us breath; such a truth as ends all strife; such a life as killeth death. Come, My Light, My Feast, My Strength: such a light as shows a feast; such a feast as mends in length; such a strength as makes his guest. Come, My joy, My Love, My Heart: such a joy as none can move; such a love as none can part; such a heart as joys in love.

Presentation and Doxology
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below, low, praise God, all creatures here below, low, praise God, all creatures here below, low.
The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer A

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord...

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right...to give our thanks and praise.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

And now, as our Savior Christ, has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And, lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance and give thanks:

The congregation kneels or remains standing, and the Celebrant continues:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen again; Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us all with your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.
