For we all share one bread and one cup.

But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat * and their punishment would last for ever.

Those who hate the and turn my hand against their foes.

I should soon subdue their enemies * that Israel would walk in my ways!

Oh, that my people would listen to me! * to follow their own devices.

"Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it."

Lord, our God, you are the Holy One; you take a way the sin of the world; have mercy on us, Lord Jesus, our God, and make our hearts to turn away from evil.

And of thine own have we given thee.

All things come of thee O Lord.

We who are many are one body. For we all share one bread and one cup.

Gospel Luke 14:13, 7-14

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable.

"When you invite someone by your own invitation, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Comminon

In the Episcopal Church, all baptized Christians are encouraged to receive communion. This is the Lord’s table. It is the Lord’s wish that those who want to reaffirm their union with the Lord and each other should receive communion. During communion, please come forward at the direction of the usher in the high altar, filling in at the altar rail from right to left, and either kneeling or standing to receive. For those who prefer not to use the steps, please signal the clergy circulating to request that communion be brought to you in your pew. Our custom in the Episcopal Church is to receive both elements by putting hands forward, palms crossed and facing upward to receive the bread, and by guiding the chalice lightly to receive the wine. Please note that receiving just the bread or wine alone is fully receiving communion. If you would like to receive a blessing instead, simply cross your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available at the high altar, but the priest knows when you go up to receive.
