Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is—seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People: Form III
The Leader and People pray responsively.
Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church; That we all may be one.
Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you; That your Name may be glorified by all people.
We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons; That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world; That there may be justice and peace on earth.
Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake; That our works may find favor in your sight.
Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble; That they may be delivered from their distress.
Give to the departed eternal rest; Let light perpetual shine upon them.
We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy; May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
Silence
The People may add their own petitions.
The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Consecration of Sin and Absolution
Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.
The congregation kneels, and a short period of silence is kept.
Deacon and People
From Enriching Our Worship God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.
The Celebrant stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Ghost keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

PRESENTATION AND DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below; praise God, above in heaven.

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer A

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, our heavenly Father, sent your only-begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Hymn 512

William Mathias

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

The Lord speaks:

He has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are oppressed.

The congregation kneels or remains standing, and the Celebrant continues

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will among men.

The Chalice is then brought to the people. The Celebrant is to take the chalice and stand. The people respond: "Amen."然后再进行端酒，取酒和喝。请将酒分给每一个需要的人。

COMMUNION

In the Episcopal Church, all baptized Christians are encouraged to receive communion. This is the Lord's table. It is the Lord's wish that those who want to reaffirm their union with the Lord, and who are not under suspension, and who wish to make a public profession of their faith, should receive this sacrament.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to him, and said, "This is my blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through our Son Jesus Christ, by him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thine Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Sending out of Eucharistic Visitors

Celebrant

We who are one body.

People

For we all share one bread, and one cup.

Postcommunion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Saviour Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
