Ding Dong, Merrily on High
Andrew Carter

Ding dong! merrily on high in heaven the bells are ringing: Ding dong!
verily the sky is riven with angel singing. Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! E’en so here below, below, let steeple bells be swungen, and io, io, io, by priest and people sungen. Pray you dutifully prime your matin chime, ye ringers; may you beautifully rime your evetime song, ye singers.

Sans Day Carol
John Rutter

Now the holly bears a berry as white as the milk, and Mary bore Jesus, who was wrapped up in silk. And Mary bore Jesus Christ our Savior for to be, and the first tree in the greenwood, it was the holly! Now the holly bears a berry as green as the grass, and Mary bore Jesus, who died on the cross.
Now the holly bears a berry as black as the coal, and Mary bore Jesus, who died for us all. Now the holly bears a berry, as blood is it red, then trust we our Savior, who rose from the dead.

Cherry Tree Carol
Stephen Cleobury

Joseph was an old man, and an old man was he, when he married Mary in the land of Galilee. And as they were walking through an orchard so good, where were cherries and berries as red as any blood. O then bespoke Mary with words both meek and mild, ‘Pluck me one cherry, Joseph; for that I am with child.’ ‘Go to the tree then, Mary, and it shall bow to thee; and you shall gather cherries by one, by two, by three.’ Then bowed down the highest tree unto our Lady’s hand; ‘See,’ Mary cried, ‘See Joseph, I have cherries at command.’ ‘O eat your cherries, Mary, O eat your cherries now; O eat your cherries, Mary, that grow upon the bough.’ Then Mary plucked a cherry, as red as any blood, then Mary went she homewards all with her heavy load.

Ashley Leland, soprano

Before the Marvel of This Night
Carl Schalk

Before the marvel of this night adoring, fold your wings and bow, then tear the sky apart with light and with your news the world endow. Proclaim the birth of Christ and peace, that fear and death and sorrow cease: sing peace, sing peace, sing gift of peace. Awake the sleeping world with song, this is the day the Lord has made. Assemble here, celestial throng, in royal splendor come arrayed. Give earth a glimpse of heav’nly bliss, a teasing taste of what they miss: sing bliss, sing bliss, sing endless bliss. The love that we have always known, our constant joy and endless light, now to the loveless world be shown, now break upon its deathly night. Into one song compress the love that rules our universe above: sing love, sing love, sing
God is love. [Jaroslav J. Vajda]
The congregation stands as the hymn is introduced.

HYMN 83 O Come, All Ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come, and behold him, born the King of angels;

Refrain
O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.

God from God, Light from Light eternal,
Lo! he abhors not the Virgin’s womb;
Only-begotten Son of the Father; Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
Glory to God, glory in the highest; Refrain

See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle, leaving their flocks, draw nigh to gaze;
We too will thither bend our joyful footsteps; Refrain

Child, for us sinners poor and in the manger,
We would embrace thee, with love and awe;
Who would not love thee, loving us so dearly? Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be glory given;
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing; Refrain

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The congregation is seated.

Lesson

Isaiah 52:7—10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.” Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the Lord to Zion. Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Hymn 87
Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

Mendelssohn
arr. David Willcocks

Hark! the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
with th’angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!

Refrain
Hark! the herald angels sing glory to the newborn King!

Christ, by highest heaven adored; Christ, the everlasting Lord;
late in time behold him come, offsprings of the Virgin’s womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; hail th’incarnate Deity.
Pleased as man with us to dwell; Jesus, our Emmanuel!

Refrain
Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die, born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings, light and life to all he brings, hail, the Sun of Righteousness! hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace.

Gospel

John 1:1—14

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Homily The Rector

A brief period of silence follows the Homily.

The congregation stands at the clergy's lead.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is—seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father; God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Prayers of the People

Adapted from Christ Church Cranbrook

The Leader and People pray responsively.

On this holy night in which God joins heaven and earth, let us offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all those in need.

Silence

Mighty God, bless all those who are entrusted with Christian ministry—especially for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Peter, our Bishop; and the clergy of this parish—that your Word might be proclaimed with truth and courage.

O Come, let us adore him.

God of Peace, bestow your wisdom on all who govern—especially for Donald, our President; Ron, our Governor; and the Mayor and members of the Town Council—that in honoring the earth and its diverse races, cultures, and religions, we may celebrate the light of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

Merciful God, grant reconciliation to those surrounded with conflict and violence, that they may live in the peace of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

Compassionate God, embrace with your tender care all who wander alone or have no place to lay their head, that they may experience the hope of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

God of Healing, draw near to those who find this season a source of pain or grief, and to all who are suffering or sick, especially those on our parish prayer list. May they feel the comfort of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

Nurturing God, strengthen us your children in the bonds of love and commitment, that we may delight in the joy of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

Loving God, open our hearts to your presence, that we may be transformed by the new birth of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

God of Hope, give us grace to follow your holy ones in lives of faith and commitment, that we may join with the hosts of heaven in singing the praises of this holy night.

O Come, let us adore him.

Celebrant Good and gracious God, on this holy night you gave us your Son, the Savior of all, wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. On this holy night draw us into the mystery of your love. Join our voices with the heavenly host, that we may sing your glory on high. Give us a place among the shepherds, that we may find the one for whom we have waited, Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, in the splendor of eternal light, God forever and ever. Amen.
The Peace

Celebrant
The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People
And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory
Members of the congregation will present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord. See page 14 for more information.

Anthems at the Offertory

Candlelight Carol

Candlelight, angel light, fire-light and star-glow shine on his cradle till breaking of dawn.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Angels are singing; the Christ Child is born. Shepherds and wise men will kneel and adore him, seraphim round him their vigil will keep; nations proclaim him their Lord and their Savior, but Mary will hold him and sing him to sleep. Find him at Bethlehem laid in a manger: Christ our Redeemer asleep in the hay. Godhead incarnate and hope of salvation: a child with his mother that first Christmas Day.

I Saw Three Ships

I saw three ships come sailing in on Christmas Day in the morning. And what was in those ships all three on Christmas Day in the morning? Our Savior Christ and his lady on Christmas Day in the morning. Pray, whither sailed those ships all three on Christmas Day in the morning? O, they sailed into Bethlehem on Christmas Day in the morning. And all the bells on earth shall ring on Christmas Day in the morning. And all the angels in heaven shall sing on Christmas Day in the morning. And all the souls on earth shall sing on Christmas Day in the morning. Then let us all rejoice amain on Christmas Day in the morning!

At the Presentation

As the gifts are presented, the congregation stands and joins in singing

Regent Square

All creation, join in praising God, Creator, Spirit, Son, ever more your voices raising to the eternal Three in One: Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the newborn King!
The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Robert Powell

The congregation remains standing, and the Celebrant continues.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”
After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People
We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father,

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Communion
All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament of the Eucharist. This is the Lord’s table. It is the Lord who invites you. It is his wish that those who want him should meet him here. During communion, please come forward at the direction of the ushers to the stations at the Chancel steps, or, if unable to do so, please signal to the clergy circulating with communion. Our custom in the Episcopal Church is to receive both elements by putting hands forward, palms crossed and facing upward to receive the bread, and by guiding the chalice lightly to receive the wine. Please note that receiving just the bread or wine alone is fully receiving communion. Gluten-free wafers are available; let the priest know when you go up to receive. If you would like to receive a blessing instead, go to the stations and simply cross your arms across your chest.

During the Communion

Anthem     Sweet Was the Song     William Mathias
Sweet was the song the Virgin sang, when she to Bethlehem Juda came and was delivered of a son, that blessed Jesus hath to name. Lulla, lulla, lulla, lullaby. ‘Sweet babe,’ sang she, ‘my son, and eke a savior born, who hast vouchsafed from on high to visit us that were forlorn.’ ‘Sweet babe,’ sang she, and rocked him sweetly on her knee.

Kristen Gabino, soprano

The congregation joins in singing
Hymn 104     A Stable Lamp Is Lighted     Andújar

Anthem     What Is This Lovely Fragrance     Healey Willan
What is this lovely fragrance wafting like to the scents of flowers in spring! Shepherds, O tell us, whence such beauty, hear you not heavenly caroling? What is this light so fair, so tender breaking upon our wondering eyes? Never the Morning Star so radiant followed his course o’er eastern skies. Shepherds, O haste with eager footsteps, seek the Savior, born today. Low at His feet we lay our treasure, heart’s adoration, love for aye.

Jorge Toro, tenor

Anthem     Nativity Carol     John Rutter
Born in a stable so bare, born so long ago; born 'neath light of star He who loves us so. Far away silent he lay, born today, your homage pay, for Christ is born for aye, born on Christmas Day. Cradled by mother so fair, tender his lullaby; over her son so dear angel hosts fill the sky. Wise men from distant far land, shepherds from starry hills worship this babe so rare, hearts with his warmth he fills. Love in that stable was born into our hearts to flow; innocent dreaming babe, make me thy love to know.
As the lights dim, the congregation kneels and joins in singing

Hymn 111  Silent Night, Holy Night

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace.
Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar,
heavenly hosts sing alleluia; Christ, the Savior, is born!
Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love’s pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The congregation remains kneeling for the Postcommunion Prayer.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant and People
Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE CHRISTMAS BLESSING

May the Babe of Bethlehem bring you joy; may the Boy of Nazareth bring you hope; may the Man from Galilee bring you love; may the Risen Lord of Jerusalem bring you peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be with you always. Amen.

The congregation stands as the hymn is introduced.

Hymn 100  Joy to the World

Joy to the world! the Lord is come: let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing.
Joy to the world! the Savior reigns; let us their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains, repeat the sounding joy.
No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found.
He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love.

Christmas Eucharist and Luncheon for the Homebound

Wednesday, December 31, at 11:00 a.m.

This is always an enjoyable and uplifting holiday service for our parishioners who may have difficulty attending regularly as well as for residents of area skilled nursing and rehab facilities. We begin with a hot holiday luncheon served in the Parish Hall at 11:00 a.m. A Holiday Eucharist will follow in the church. As always, we are in need of volunteers to help with all aspects of this event from registration and helping guests as they arrive for church, as well as assisting them to the Parish Hall afterwards—serving the meal, and cleanup. If you are interested in helping in any way, please contact April at (561) 655-4555 x112.

Boar’s Head & Yule Log Festival

Saturday, January 4 | 3:30 p.m.

Sunday, January 5 | 2:00 & 4:30 p.m.

A requested donation of $20 will be received at the door.

A perennial favorite of the Christmas season returns! Pipes and Drums, Beefeaters, Sprites, Shepherds, the Three Kings and their Pages, Mary and Joseph, Flag Bearers, Jesters, the Herald, King Wenceslas and his Page, a Brass Quintet, the mighty Austin organ, and the Bethesda Choir . . . all will be in place as our Festival takes place on the weekend closest to The Feast of the Epiphany, twelve days after Christmas!

In case of an emergency Bethesda has two AEDs (Automated External Defibrillator) available—in the sound booth at the back of the church and on the south wall in the Parish Hall.
Bethesda’s Mission is to experience the clear and strong presence of God and to understand and spread Christ’s teachings through collective worship, learning, and service.
