The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon.

One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).
And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succor all those who in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service and to grant us grace so to follow the good examples of all thy saints, that with them we may partake of thy heaven's kingdom. Grant these thy prayers, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Confession of Sin and Absolution (congregation kneeling)
Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, judge of all men: We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty; provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us, the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant pronounces absolution and then the congregation stands.

Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks unto our Lord.

People
Our Father, who art in heaven...

Celebrant
It is meet and right so to do.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant
Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

People
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The congregation begins moving forward to the altar rail as soon as the Celebrant says the words, "The Gifts of God for the People of God."

Communion
In the Episcopal Church, all baptized Christians are encouraged to receive communion. This is the Lord's table. It is the Lord who invites you. It is his wish that those who want him should meet him here. During communion, please come forward at the direction of the ushers, to the high altar, filling in at the altar steps' right to left, and either kneel or sit. For those who prefer to not use the steps, please request from an usher that communion be brought to you in your pew. Our custom at the Episcopal Church is to receive both elements by putting hands forward, palms crossed and facing upward to receive the bread, and by guiding the chalice lightly to receive the wine. Please note that receiving just the bread or wine alone is fully receiving communion. If you prefer to receive by licking instead, simply cross your arms across your mouth. Gluten-free wafers are available at the high altar; let the priest know when you go up to receive.

Following Communion, the congregation stands for the Postcommunion Prayer and Blessing.

We who are many are one body.

People
For all we share one bread, and one cup.

Postcommunion Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, we most heartily thank thee for thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporated in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Blessing
The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be unto you all. Amen.

The Dismissal
