OPENING SENTENCES
Confession of Sin and Absolution From Enriching Our Worship

Let us confess our sins to God.

The congregation kneels, and a period of silence is kept.

Celebrant and People

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will, Amen.

The Priest alone stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

INVITATORY AND PSALTER

The congregation stands.

Celebrant Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Hymnal S – 37 Stephen Elvey

Please find the service music in the front section of the blue hymnal.

PSALM
Psalm 66:1-11

Said antiphonally

1 Be joyful in God, all you lands; *

sing the glory of his Name; sing the glory of his praise.

2 Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! * because of your great strength your enemies cringe before you.

3 All the earth bows down before you; *

sings to you, sings out your Name.

4 Come now and see the works of God, * how wonderful he is in his doing toward all people.

5 He turned the sea into dry land, * so that they went through the water on foot, * and there we rejoiced in him.

6 In his might he rules for ever; his eyes keep watch over the nations; * let no rebel rise up against him.

7 Bless our God, you peoples; * make the voice of his praise to be heard;

8 Who holds our souls in life; * and will not allow our feet to slip.

9 For you, O God, have proved us; * you have tried us as just is silver.

10 You brought us into a place of refreshment; * you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.

11 Let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; * but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

Said by all following the Psalm

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The congregation is seated.

LESSON 2

Jeremiah 29:1-4, 7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

SECOND LESSON

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean; one of them, when he realized that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten cured? Where are the other nine?" And he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

HOMILY The Rector

A brief period of silence follows the Homily.

APOTHESES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven; and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS

OFFICIANT Let us pray.

The congregation kneels.

Suffrances B

Officiant Save your people, Lord, and bless your inheritance;

People Govern and uphold them, now and always.

Officiant Day by day we bless you;

People We praise your name for ever.

Officiant Lord, keep us from all sin today;

People Have mercy upon us, Lord, have mercy.

Officiant Lord, show us your love and mercy;

People For we put our trust in you.

Officiant In you, Lord, is our hope;

People And we shall never hope in vain.

COLLECTS

The Collect of the Day

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Collect for Sunday

O God, you make us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of your Son our Lord: Give us this day such blessing through your worship of you, that the week to come may be spent in your favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Grace

Lord God, almighty and everlasting Father, you have brought us in safety to this new day: Preserve us with your mighty power, that we may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all we do, direct us to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Welcome (in unison)

Light within all light, soul behind all souls, guide our hearts and minds as we welcome those who worship today at Bethesda-by-the-Sea. Give us discerning hearts to recognize the face of the Beloved in each child of God, for often goes the Christ in the stranger’s guise. In the name of the unvindied Trinity, Amen.

INTERCESSIONS

The Grace

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

WELCOMING OF NEW MEMBERS

The prospective members come to the Chancel steps with the Associates and face the Rector

PRESIDENTS Father Harlan, I present to you these persons to be presented to God, in accordance with the By-Laws of the Church, of Bethesda-by-the-Sea. They have been brought into God’s family, the Church, through the waters of Baptism at which time you or your parents committed to loving and serving our Lord Jesus Christ through prayer, worship, study, stewardship, and ministry.

Now you come seeking to live out that baptismal covenant in this part of God’s family at the Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea. You have been instructed in the requirements for membership and the opportunities for ministry.

Will you commit yourself to being faithful disciples of Jesus Christ and committed members of this Parish?

Prospective Members of this Parish are commit, members of this Parish?

Prospective Members I will with God's help.
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Communion Rector The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

The Lord's table. It is the Lord's wish that those who want to reaffirm their union with the Lord in the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with all our heart.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion In the Episcopal Church, all baptized Christians are encouraged to receive communion. This is the Lord's Supper. It is the Lord's desire that those who wish to reaffirm their union with the Lord and each other should receive communion. During communion, please come forward at the direction of the usher to the high altar or to the chapel altar, sitting in at the altar rail from right to left, and either kneeling or standing to receive. For those who prefer not to use the steps, please either go to the chapel or signal the clergy circulating to request that communion be brought to you in your pew. Our custom in the Episcopal Church is to receive both elements by putting hands forward, palms crossed and facing upward to receive the bread, and by guiding the chalice lightly to receive the wine. Receiving just the bread or wine alone is fully receiving communion. If you would like to receive a blessing instead, simply cross your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available at the high altar; let the priest know when you go up to receive.

Postcommunion Prayer

The postcommunion prayer asks God to bless and strengthen your pilgrim journey through Jesus Christ, our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The congregation stands when the postcommunion prayer is recited.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

Greeting and Announcements

Offertory Anthem O Praise the Lord

Adrian Batten

Presentation and Doxology Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God all creatures here below; praise God, Creator of all things, Who by his Holy Spirit inspires all hearts to sing your glory.

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer A

The... Lord be... with you. And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord. It is right... to give thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Sacrament adds a Preface that continues

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Hymnal S–128

William Mathias

Hosanna! You are holy, Hosanna! You are the Lord of power and might, heaven and earth are full of glory. Hosanna in the highest.

And now, as our Savior Christ, has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem

Tom Gibbs

Let this broken bread and shared wine be a foretaste of your kingdom, where no one is left behind.
