The congregation is seated.
The Celebrant begins from the west end of the church.

Light within all light, soul behind all souls, guide our hearts and minds as we went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of which I have written for their instruction. " So Moses set out with his welcome those who worship today at Bethesda-by-the-Sea. Give us discerning hearts to recognize the face of the Beloved in each child of God, for often goes in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights. The elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; wherever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the cloud was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain. Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with them. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.

Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is—seen and unseen.

Collect For Welcome
The Rev. Canon Elizabeth R. Geitz
A brief period of silence follows the Homily.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.
O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the likeness of Christ in the stranger's guise. In the name of the undivided Trinity. Amen.

Collect For Welcome (in unison)
Light within all light, soul behind all souls, guide our hearts and minds and as we welcome those who worship today at Bethesda-by-the-Sea. Give us discerning hearts to recognize the face of the Beloved in each child of God, for often goes the Christ in the stranger's guise. In the name of the undivided Trinity. Amen.

Lesson
Exodus 24:12-18
The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Prayers of the People
From Intercessions for the Christian People
In the waters of baptism, we were called to be God's children and to minister to one another. Let us therefore pray for all those in need.

Let us pray for the church, that it may stand fast in the one faith to which it has been called.

Let us pray for the world, that our conflicts may cease and that peace may reign.

Let us pray for the victims of injustice, that we may work for an end to their suffering.

Let us pray for the sick, that their sickness may be turned to health.

Let us pray for the faithful who have gone before us.
